Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullnes of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

THE LIVE SOFA.

A DOCTOR'S STRATEGY.

Mr Lundy was a peculiar-looking man, with a thin face, and long, straight hair, that he fancied never needed cutting. He had, at one time, been very unfortunate in business; but though made rich since, by a large legacy, he was not in a condition to enjoy it. The fact is, Mr. Lundy was a confirmed hypochrondriac.

For many years Mrs. L. had stayed at home and humored his whims, but one season her pretty daughter wanted to go to a watering-place, not for any disease in particular, but to see the world and the young folks in it.

Behold them, then, comfortably established in a seaside hotel. For two days Mr. Lundy had been all right; but one morning his poor wife knew what was coming, by the peculiarity of his looks and motions. Her book fell from her hand. Minnie turned pale.

'He's been flighty all the morning,' said Mrs. L. 'Dear, dear, see him whirl—what is it, Lundy?'

'A feather, my dear—a feather; catch me—hold me. Don't you see the wind is blowing me everywhere? It will take me out to sea, and I shall get saturated—yes, wet through, Mrs. Lundy. I beg you to catch me; pin me to your bonnet; I shall be safe there. Just see how frightfully I ruffle; the slightest puff of air agitates me throughout. I'd rather be anything than this. Do put me in your bonnet, my dear.'

'I'll put you in a madhouse before long,' muttered the exasperated wife, 'if you cut up such capers. Come into the hotel, Mr. Lundy.'

'Come into the hotel, madam? You talk as if I had legs. Did you ever see a feather walk? Why, I'm lighter than a snow-drift. I wish I had a brick in my hat, to keep me down. Oh! I envy everything stationary. Observe how I quiver. Stick a pin in me, my dear, and fasten me to the floor. Is there enough of me for a pen? Am I a hen-feather, or a duck-feather or what?'

'Goose-feather, if anything, you tiresome mortal,' cried his wife. 'I am sick of your vagaries. First, you're a cat on the roof, mewing and keeping everybody awake; then you're a glass bottle, full of water, freezing and snapping; you're anything and everything but a reasonable man. I am tired of it.'

'Mrs. Lundy, will you have the goodness to put me in your pocket? Squeeze me in your hand—anything, that I may feel safe in your protecting care. 'I'm afloat, (singing); I'm afloat; I'm afloat.' Ah! what's that?'

'Nothing, Mr. Lundy, but Joe's whip. I called him from the coach-house. Lay on, Joe.'

'But, my love, my legs.'

'Nonsense, Mr. Lundy. Lay on, Joe. Feathers haven't got legs."

'True, Mrs. Lundy; but they have marrow, and that's what feels. Pray beg Joe to stop.'

Just then ran up little Tom, the only male hope of the Lundy family, and, strange to say, in his hand a handsome hen-feather. A triumphant smile illuminated the face of Lundy the elder.

'Now, my dear,' he said, gravely, taking the feather in his hand, 'I hope you'll believe me. My child, look on that feather, and be thankful; that was me.'

And little Tom, chuckling at the idea, ran up and down the piazza, repeating merrily:

'Pa was a hen once; dear me, how funny!'

Minnie Lundy was captivating; there is no doubt about that. In pink, blue, white, or green, she looked equally charming. There were rich men there who would have been glad to possess her, and nice men, and silly to that extent that they were fools and didn't know it. But it happened that a young physician was luckier than them all, and poorer. 'I must have that girl,' he said, sotto voce, a dozen times a day, and then heartily wished that she had a fever. Probably he saw Minnie through the back of his head, for he was always looking out of the window when she came in, and always blushed violently.

One day Minnie followed her mother into the parlor. As usual, Dr. Stagg was there.

'My dear,' cried Mrs. Lundy, who had just come from the garden, 'you look excited.'

'O, mamma!' and her voice was so sweetly low, so softly agitated—"we shall have to leave this place, indeed we shall. Father is taking on terribly; some of the boarders are laughing—others are shocked.'

'What is the freak now, my dear?'

'O! he's a rooster, and crows till he's black in the face.'

'A rooster! horrible! And here we are; not a doctor we know——'

Somebody wheeled round from the window.

'Madam, I heard you speaking of—the—ahem—need of a doctor. Excuse my forwardness—but I am a physician.'

Of course Minnie was more beautiful than ever in her confusion.

'My poor husband has an unfortunate tendency that annoys everybody near him.'

'Perhaps he is a hypochondriac. I think I've seen him. Where is he madam?'

'On the north porch,' said Minnie.

'And I am sure we are very much obliged,' added the mother, 'if you can help him.'

The first sound that struck their ears, as they issued from the door, was a grand and sonorous 'cock-a-doodle-doo!'

'John—Mr. Lundy!' cried his wife, 'what a sad spectacle you are making of yourself!'

'I'm no spectacle, good woman; I'm a rooster. Get out of my way—do you not notice the expanse of my wings? Cock-a-doodle-doo!'

'What shall we do?' cried the poor wife, to the doctor. 'Oh, sir, can you stop this ridiculous exhibition?'

'Trust me, madam,' said the young man, biting his lips, for the sight was almost too ridiculo is for his gravity.

'Upon my word,' continued he, addressing the deluded man, 'what a magnificent creature! Why, his feathers are a yard long. Where did you get such a splendid specimen? Is he imported?'

'Cock-a-doodledoo!' yelled the human biped, strutting more than ever. 'That woman has nothing to do with me, sir—nothing at all. I'm a rooster on my own account—cock-a-doodle-doo!'

Here the doctor gave orders aside to one of the servants, who went away grinning. Then turning to the rooster, who was by this time red in the face with exertion, he said:

'I declare it makes my mouth water to think what a capital dinner that bird would furnish. May I wring his neck, madam? It will take but a few seconds.'

'No you don't,' cried the other; 'I'm tough, I'm very tough, I'm an old bird, sir, not to be caught with chaff.'

'But you are a rooster; what else are you good for?'

'Good to crow, sir; good to crow;' after which came the loudest screech of all, succeeded by a somersault and a sense of suffocation. Another moment and the servant reappeared with a dead fowl in his arms.

'I assure you, sir, it had to be done,' said the doctor, gravely; and Mr. Lundy rubbed his face and pinched his throat.

'Did you really wring my neck, sir?' the hypochondriac asked, gravely.

'When you were a rooster, certainly.'

'Did I die game?' asked the other, with a manner of solemn importance.

'You did—particularly game,' replied the doctor.

'Thank you, sir. If I should happen to turn into a rooster again, I shall know where to go.'

'I shall be most happy to—to wring your neck for you, sir, on any such interesting occasion.'

'Very kind, I'm sure. If you should ever get into any trouble, John Lundy will stand your friend.'

'Do you promise me that, sir?'

'I do, and I never break my word.'

After that, Minnie walked into the garden sometimes; and Minnie was not alone—not she.

'I love violets best,' said the doctor to her one day.

'And I roses.'

So Minnie, being the least bit sentimental, quoted Pope on roses—something about dew. And the doctor went on Shakspeare, very bad indeed, till somehow, in some way—he never could tell how, nor in what way (neither could she)—he said it.

See dictionary for 'it.'

'Indeed, I must not listen to this," murmured Minnie, dying to hear it again. 'My father, if he knew—'

'Would disapprove, perhaps,' cried the young doctor. 'And why? Because I am poor. And you, too, perhaps—'

'No, no; I—I—you know—I—love—you but—'

'Hark! Who calls?'

Enter Tommy.

'Oh, sis! pa's took again; he's going it awful!'

'What is it now, dear?' asked Minnie, with the face of an angle; but perhaps she was not a little cross at the interruption.

'Oh, he's a sofa, and ma says please somebody come and smash him all to bits.'

'What shall we do?' sighed Minnie; 'that is the most ridiculous freak of all.'

'Don't be frightened, my love,' said the doctor. 'Tommy, run right home and tell your mother I will be there in five minutes. Now, Minnie, there is but one way I know of to cure your father at once, and that is by giving him a shock.'

'What! of electricity?'

'No, dear—far more powerful than that. You must go to the little brown house over there and be married.'

'Oh never; my father would kill me.'

'Does he ever break his word?'

'I never knew him to.'

'All right. He promised me that if I should ever get into trouble he would help me out.'

'Did he, really? Then he will.'

'But it is necessary that we give him the check first. Delay not, my darling; you shall never regret it.'

Of course they went.

'All I ask is that nobody'll sit on me; I'm cracked. Beside, I'm just varnished, and not quite dry yet. Do, my dear, stand at the door and tell people as they come in that I cannot be sat on or in any way meddled with. I'm so flimsily fastened together.'

This was the speech that greeted Dr. Stagg as he entered Mr. Lundy's parlor with Minnie. Mrs. Lundy was in tears.

'Doctor, as soon as ever I get home I'll have that ridiculous man carried to the hospital—indeed I will,' cried the poor woman. 'I've borne with it long enough, and I'm completely worn out.'

'So am I, my dear,' piped up her husband; 'I suppose I'm second hand; shouldn't wonder in the least, my legs feel so shaky. Pray don't touch me, Isn't one roller gone, my dear?'

'Roller gone! your wits are gone. I wish I was a man. I'd varnish you in such a way that you'd never want to be a sofa again, or any piece of furniture.

The doctor stood near gravely considering.

'My dear you are better as you are, for I see in the last five minutes you have come out a beautiful washbowl and pitcher. But isn't your nose a little cracked, or do I see awry?—Shouldn't wonder, for my head is full of brass tacks. I think I've snuffed them up my nose. It's worse than influenza.'

'Was ever any poor creature so afflicted?' murmured Mrs. Sofa—I mean Mrs. Lundy.

'Never, my love. I protest that I couldn't be anything else if I would—but a sofa I am, and I a poor one at that.'

At that moment the doctor sprang forward and planted himself upon the the prostrated body of Mr. Lundy.

'Capital sofa, this,' he said keeping his position in spite of his victim's struggles.

'Get up, I'm cracking in six peices. Good heavens! you'll ruin me—you'll break my back! Get up till I'm properly mended, for pity's sake.'

'Upon my word,' said the doctor, calmly, 'this piece of furnitnre acts as if it was alive. It kicks and wriggles, and it makes me laugh at its antics. What a ridiculous sofa?"

'I tell you I'm second-hand!' cried the hypochondriac more faintly than before, for one hundred and thirty pounds, dead weight, was no light infliction. 'I'm brass-tacked—old—very old—full of cracks—one roller gone. O! pray don't lean your weight on me.'

The doctor lifted himself cautiously. The sofa gave one deep inspiration.

The doctor looked serious.

'Are you sure you are a sofa?

'Of course I am.'

'Then you are no longer Mr. Lundy?'

'I am no longer Mr. Lundy.'

'Can you keep a secret?'

'Certainly I can.'

'Do you know old Lundy's daughter?'

'I guess I do.'

'Won't you let on to the old fellow if I tell you something?

'Not if you say no?'

'Well, I've just married her. She's my wife.'

Off went the sofa like a gun.

'What! You villian!'

'Take care or you'll break! cried the doctor.

'Yo young rascal!

'You old sofa!'

'You desperate young thief!

'You ricketty old sofa, with your head full of brass tacks, I tell you,' cried the doctor, 'if you had not been a feather, and a rooster, and a sofa, and the cats know what, you'd have looked after your daughter better than you have. But come, let's be friends, and thank me for curing you. You'll never be a hypochondriac again—I'll take good care of that—for you see it's a nice thing to have a medical adviser in the family. Besides, you promised me once that if I was in trouble you'd help me through. Come, come, let us be quits.'

'I see I can't help myself,' said the old man gravely; 'but I tell you what, I shall consider you a thief until you are able to support your wife in the style she is accustomed to.'

'And I, sir, shall consider you a sofa until you revoke that decision.'

It is needless to add, that was the last of the trouble.

SUDDEN CONVERSIONS.

One of the zealous chaplains of the army of the Potomac called on a Colonel noted for his profanity, in order to talk about the religious interest of his men. He was politely received, and motioned to a seat on a chest, when the following dialogue ensued:

Chaplain—"Colonel, you have one of the finest regiments in the army."

Colonel—"I believe so."

Chaplain—"Do you think you pay sufficient attention to the religious instruction of your men?"

Colonel—(doubtfully) "Well I don't know."

Chaplain—"A lively interest has been awakened in the —— Massachusetts, (a revival regiment.) The Lord has blessed the laborers of his servants, and ten have already been baptized.

Colonel—(excitedly) "Is that so! [To the attendant:] Sergeant Major, have fifteen men detailed immediately for baptism, I'll be d—d if I'll be outdone by any Massachusetts regiment."

AN Irishman, on being told to grease a wagon, returned in an hour afterwards and said, "I've greased every part of the wagon but them sticks the wheels hang on!"

DYING WORDS OF GREAT MEN.

The following are reported to be the dying words of the men to whom they are accredited:

Napoleon—Head of the army.
Byron—I must sleep now.
Goethe—Let the light enter.
Nelson—I thank God I have done my duty.
Washington—It is well.
Chesterfield—Give Dayrelle a chair.
Raleigh—It matters little how the head lieth.
Thurlow—I'm shot if I don't believe I'm dying.
Grotius—Be serious.
Cardinal Beaumont—What! is there no bribing death?
Sir Thomas Moore—I pray you see me safe up, and for my coming down, let me shift for myself.
Burns—Don't let that awkward squad fire over my grave.
Franklin—A dying man can do nothing easy.
Mirabeau—Let me die to the sound of delicious music.
Lawrence—Don't give up the ship.
Alfieri—Clasp my hand, my dear friend; I die.
Walter Scott—I feel as if I were myself again.
Adams—Independence forever.
Jefferson—I resign myself to God, my daughter to my country.
John Quincy Adams—The last of earth.
Addison—I have sent for you (Lord Warwick) to see how a christian can die.
George IV—And is this death.
Edward VI—Lord, take my spirit.

"AFTER one of the most active, earnest and untiring political contests ever witnessed in this country, the Republican party has achieved a signal and a glorious triumph."—Exchange.

Not so fast. We can't see your "signal and glorious triumph." For the past eight years you have been digging trenches, building breastworks, laying in stores, and buying recruits.—You have procured the services of the pulpit, and the "whiskey ring;" you have made the seat of government "a den of thieves, harlots," and corruption generally; and have extended your ramifications all over the country.—You have established your paid hirelings, and tariff gatherers in every county in the land. You have thrust your hands into the pockets of the people to the extent of millions of money, which you have shamefully used and squandered to procure a further lease of power. You had everything that knaves could devise or treason invent; and with purses filled with public plunder, you went into the contest armed and equipped to the teeth, to defend your position and retain your booty.

You had everything to lose.

We had everything to gain.

Now, the battle is over, how stands the field?

Against your entrenchments, filled with political Beechers, Treasury harlots, "whiskey rings," public plunderers, women murderers and Rev. seducers of female virtue, the democracy arrayed an army of two-and-a-half millions of honest men, who fought you hard and manfully; broke through your entrenchments, and, though they failed to dislodge you, they captured thirty odd members of Congress, and sent them to luxuriate up Salt River; among the number the notorious and virtuous Jim Ashley, and others of kindred ilk.

Now, where is your "glorious triumph?" With all your defensive advantages, your bulwarks and trenches, you have not captured a single man of us. Your bombshells, laden with hate, venom, treason to God and humanity, have fallen harmless; our ranks are undismayed and unbroken. We hold the ground we have taken, and you cannot drive us back. You may gloat over your corrupt judges, your successful frauds at the polls, your defiance of right and justice; we tell you, that our march, the march of truth, justice and right is onward.

We have gained upon you; and we hold our position, and we do not intend to give it up.

You have elected Grant. Have you got him? You are not certain of that fact. If an honest conscientious man—a friend of the Union and of prosperity, you may find him less tractable than even Johnson. He has given you no pledges; advised no policy. You are as ignorant of him as we are.

What is more, you do not even breath freely. Your spasmodic triumph dies away between your teeth. You cannot even raise a shout while your great leader passes from four months obscurity in Illinois, through Ohio and Pennsylvania, to Washington.—The Jeffersonian.

WE do not know whether it is MR. THURLOW WEED who is to be cited as authority for the fact, or whether it comes from some other source; but a special despatch from Washington to the New York Commercial Advertiser announces that a movement is on foot to relieve General Grant, as soon as he succeeds to the Presidency, from the shackles imposed by Congress upon President Johnson. We also learn that the leading Radicals and the officeholders, almost to a man, are decidedly opposed to any such action. But, as it is understood that the Democratic members of Congress are preparing to bring in a bill restoring full Executive functions to the incoming President, an impression prevails "that the Republicans will anticipate them, and that such an act—to take effect from the 4th of March next—will be passed at the commencement of the December session."

That a measure of this kind is in contemplation, and that it should be first promulgated by a Republican journal, certainly indicates at least a desire on the part of the more moderate Republicans to cut loose from their Radical associates by reinstating the Executive and Judicial Departments of the Government in the exercise of their normal functions. Of course, the Radicals will vehemently oppose so flagrant a reaction. The retention of these prohibitory laws is vital to the success of the Radical programme.—If it be conceded that the prerogatives of the Executive ought not to be infringed, and if a similar affirmation in regard to Judiciary should follow, all the hopes of the Radicals to make Congress the paramount power in our system of Government would be suddenly and effectually blasted.

That the officeholders are anxious the existing state of things should not be disturbed, is not at all surprising.—At present, those who hold the most lucrative places are protected in them by Congress; and whatever may be their misdeeds, they enjoy, virtually, entire immunity from removal or punishment. To take this shield away, and leave the President free to appoint whom he thinks proper, would necessarially tend to disturb, very materially, the digestions of those who during Mr. Johnson's term of office, have watched with serene complacency his futile efforts to rid himself of them.

We do not consider that it matters much whether the Democrats or Conservative Republicans take the initiative in restoring to the incoming President the full privileges of his office. If the Republicans aspire to the honor of being foremost in baffling the schemes of their quondam associates, the Radicals, so much the better. In such a cause the Democrats have only to give to the movement their cordial support, to make it an undoubted success. But by whomsoever it may be undertaken, we know of nothing that might be made more productive of good to the whole country, and certainly nothing that would more surely defeat the Radicals in their attempt to secure for Congress "a permanent controlling influence over the Executive."

FOR THE BOYS—MISSPENT EVENINGS.—Our cotemporary of the Philadelphia Evening Star very justly remarks that the boy who spends an hour each evening lounging idly on a street corner, wastes, in the course of a single year, three hundred and sixty-five precious hours, which, if applied to study, would familiarize him with the rudiments, at least, of almost any of the familiar sciences. If, in addition to the wasting of an hour each evening he spends five cents for a cigar, which is usually the case, the amount, thus worse than wasted, would pay for four of the leading magazines of the country. Boys, think of these things.—Think of how much precious time you are wasting, and for what? The gratification afforded by the lounge on the corner, or by the cigar, is not only temporary but positively hurtful. You cannot indulge in those practices without seriously injuring yourselves. You acquire idle and wasteful habits, which will cling to you through life and grow upon you with each succeeding year. You may in after life shake them off; but the probabilities are that habits thus formed in early life will remain with you till your dying day. Be cautioned then in time, and as the hour spent in idlenes has gone forever, you will improve each passing one, and thereby fit yourself for usefullness and happiness.

WARM BED FOR PIGS.—If pigs are kept warm and dry during the winter they will do much better for it. In building a straw stack, it is very well to provide a shelter at one side or end of the same. A pen may be built at one side or end of the stack, around and over the pen, leave a gap suitable for the pigs to pass in and out, and it will make a delightful house for them, and they may sleep there warm and comfortably in the coldest weather. My neighbor, who is noted for his good care of his stock, uses this plan for his hogs, and it well repays him for his labor, and I have found it equally useful.

SOIL FOR FLOWERS.—Leaf mould is very good for flowers if two or three years old, and very much decayed; when but half rotted it is an injury. Rotten sod is the best sod for flowers, and cow manure, which has lain two years to rot, the best fertilizer. When rotten sod is not easily obtained, the edging, parings of walks may be preserved in a heap for flower purposes.

Two friends were dining together, one of them remarked: "As I am going abroad I have made my will, and have bequeathed to you my whole stock of impudence." The other replied: "You are generous as well as kind; you have bequeathed to me by far the largest portion of your estate."

A theoretically benevolent man on being asked by a friend to loan him a dollar, answered, briskly, "with pleasure;" but suddenly added, "Dear me, how unfortunate! I've only one lending dollar, and that is out."

Before you acquire a taste for whisky, insure your life and take farewell to your family. The certain death which whisky brings is only a question of time. He is always bearing surely down upon his victim, like a strong man armed, and comes inevitably as fate or taxes.

Mr. Pewitt says that a married couple should be called three, instead of one; because the woman is won and the man, too.

If a man waits patiently while a woman is putting on her things to go "shopping," he will make a good husband.

English railroads are now compelled to run smoking cars on all trains.

The Bedford Gazette.

Friday Morning, November 27, 1868.

HALT!

We are unpleasantly compelled to stop the editor of the Inquirer in his "mad career." In his last week's issue he goes on after this fashion:

"It has passed homestead and exemption laws, it has given laboring men free homes, it has protected them from the competition of the pauper labor of Europe, it exempts them from national taxes, while the copperhead party has just been defeated in the attempt to tax the poor man's last dollar at the same rate with the rich man's luxuries.

The Inquirer is discoursing of the benefits conferred upon the poorer classes by the Radical party. The mendacity of the string of assertions above quoted, is beyond parallel. Does the Inquirer dare to say, in the face of history, that the "Republican" or Radical party is the author of our homestead laws? Why, the principal enactments classed under that head, were passed before the "Republican" party was born. Hon. John L. Dawson, one of the leading Democrats of this state, acquired a national reputation by his advocacy of the Homestead Bill, as early as 1851-2. That was a Democratic measure and all other homestead laws have been modeled after it. And how about the exemption laws? Why upon the face of every note waiving the exemption laws, is specified "the act of 1849, exempting $300 worth of property from levy and sale." Was the "Republican" party in existence in 1849? If our memory is correct, it came into life with the Fremont campaign of 1856, seven years after this exemption law was passed. As to giving anybody "free homes," there are plenty of anxious "Republicans" who would like Mr. Lutz to inform them where they can be had, as they are ready to start for them at once, even if they lie at the head waters of Salt River.

"It has protected them from the competition of the pauper labor of Europe." If this means anything, it means that high tariffs have been put upon iron in order to prevent the foreign manufacturer from shipping that article to this country and selling it here at lower prices than those asked by the domestic manufacturer. Is any body fool enough to believe, for a moment, that the enhanced price of iron benefits the laborer in the ore bank or the furnace? He must be simple-minded, indeed, who has any such thought. It benefits the manufacturer, not his employee. And why not the latter? Because the wages of labor are not regulated and determined by the profits of capital. If this were so, there would be no pauper labor in Europe nor anywhere else; there would never have been negro slavery in the South, nor white slavery in the factories of New England. Tariffs protect capital, not labor. And, again, much more of the labor of this country, especially of the naval districts, is employed upon agriculture and the mechanic arts, than in mines and furnaces. Does the farmer pay his workmen more because he is compelled to give a higher price for the iron in his plough and the steel in his axe? Or does the artizan pay his journeymen better wages because the tariff makes him pay more for his tools? None but a madman can answer these questions in the affirmative. Every man who uses these articles, the cost of which is enhanced by the tariff imposed upon them to "protect" our manufacturers from the "competition of the pauper labor of Europe," is made to suffer in order to build up the capitalists who manufactures them. Three-fourths of the laboring men of the United States use those articles, in some form or other. The protection they receive from tariffs is the protection which wolves give to lambs.

"It exempts them from national taxes." It appears that, in the ethics of the Inquirer, "a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth." We ask the editor of that paper, does not the laboring man pay taxes in stamps, in duties upon the fabrics he wears, and in the prices of the food he eats enhanced by licenses and other federal taxes? Is not the butcher a laborer and does not he pay a federal license? And do not laborers generally eat meat and is not the price of meat higher than formerly on account of the butcher's license and other federal taxes? Is not the miller a laborer and does he not pay a federal license? And do not some laborers eat bread when they can get it, and is flour cheapened by the fact that the miller must pay a license and other federal taxes? Ah! Lutz, Lutz, you are sinning against light and knowledge and you had better repent soon or the devil will not let you off as easy as your illustrious compeer, Tom Pepper!

As to the Democratic party attempting "to tax the poor man's last dollar at the same rate with the rich man's luxuries," we have several times exploded that lie. We do wish Lutz would get up some new charge against us Democrats, even if it be never so false. We are tired of bursting up his old ones. They begin to smell. If taxing the bond-holders, as proposed by the Democratic party, was meant to tax the poor man's last dollar, then it would not be a bad thing to be a poor man with a last dollar. Rothschild, and the rest of the bond-holders on the other side of the Atlantic, must belong to the "pauper laborers of Europe!"

Oh, yes! The laborer now gets "two dollars per day!" How nice! Formerly he got but fifty cents per day. How many pounds of coffee can the laborer buy for his two dollars to-day? From five to six. How many pounds of coffee could he buy for his fifty cents twelve years ago? Why, from five to six. And so with other articles which the laborer consumes. How much this radical party has benefited the laborer! Its next step will be to abolish labor and feed everybody out of the national soup-bowl.

"THEM" RESOLUTIONS.

The Inquirer has lost its prestige as the organ of the Radical party of this county. Bloody Run has robbed poor Lutz of his blushing honors. The meeting on Tuesday evening of last week, was run completely in the interest of the Bloody Run machine. Hence the Inquirer is quite sore-headed. It is badly out of sorts. It even scolds the chairman of the Radical county committee, Esq. Lingenfelter. We give its article in full, as follows:

In our local columns will be found the resolutions offered at the meeting on Tuesday night. With the exception of the 4th and 5th they are fully and heartily endorsed by every Republican in the county. The 4th may not be specially objectionable, as we all admire Gov. Geary, but it is a little premature to attempt to commit the Republicans of Bedford county without giving them a chance to indicate their choice, for which there is abundant time before the nomination for our next Governor can be made. The 5th resolution is highly objectionable. Not only have we a candidate for United States Senator in our own district, Hon. Edward McPherson than whom there is no better in the State, and to whom it would be an unpardonable lack of courtesy, but the great majority of our people are unqualifiedly in favor of him as their candidate. Again, even the leading Republicans of the county were not consulted at all; the resolutions were prepared apparently by a single individual, the committee appointed and the resolutions sprung upon the meeting, the writer of them quickly moving their adoption almost before the Chairman of his committee was done reading them.

We have been unable to find a single republican outside of the parties managing the affair, who either consents to or in any way approves of the resolution. The Republicans of Bedford county cannot allow any single individual to commit them or their representative to any man for United States Senator. With all due respect and the highest personal esteem for Hon. John Scott, admiring his ability and honoring his integrity the Republicans of Bedford county cannot and do not endorse him as their first choice for United States Senator nor will they regard their Assemblyman as in any way bound or committed by the resolution referred to. We hope the chairman of the County Committee will hereafter take charge of these meetings as usual and prevent any future unfortunate occurrences of this kind."

Now that Grant, is elected, he is already beset with a host of borers for office and self constituted advisers.—Inquirer.

We had thought that these virtuous radicals hurrahed for Grant and bellowed for Colfax, and roared and ripped up and down the country generally, merely because they wanted the country saved from the pesky "rebels." But it seems after all, that they only wanted the offices.

GRANT says to the thousands who are boring the life out of him with applications for positions, "Let us have peace." These words do not possess the same charm nor sound so musical in the ears of the Radical office seekers as they did some weeks ago. The Radicals now hold that they are entitled to a "piece" as well as Grant.

A LITTLE AFEARD.

Gov. Geary has issued his proclamation declaring the election of the several persons returned to the office of the the secretary of the commonwealth as elected to the forty-first congress, in the several districts of the state, but has seen fit to omit from the list the name of Hon. Henry D. Foster, returned for the 21st district. He says:

"In the twenty-first district, composed of the counties of Indiana, Westmoreland and Fayette, no such returns of the election have been received by the secretary of the commonwealth, as would, under the election laws of the state, authorize me to proclaim the name of any person as having been returned duly elected a member of the house of representatives of the United States for that district."

Now, two of the three return judges for the twenty-first district, certified to the secretary of the commonwealth the election of Henry D. Foster; the other refused to sign the certificate, and, it is alleged, made out a certificate of his own setting forth the election of John Covode. If the governor's action, in this matter be founded on correct principles, then a single mulish or designing return judge can always prevent the insertion of the name of the duly elected member of Congress in the gubernatorial proclamation. But we doubt not that Gov. Geary desired to proclaim Gen. Foster elected, but he was a little afraid that if he did so, a certain candidate for a certain radical nomination might suffer some damage. Poor, timid fellow!

There is a movement on foot among politicians on both sides to remove Superintendent Kennedy, of the New York police force, on the ground of various acts of tyranny and oppression in office.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

If women's rights are not promptly recognized, it will not be the fault of the women themselves, for they are moving with wonderful energy in the matter. Conventions are being held in every part of the country. Speeches of the most earnest character are got off by fair orators, and a spirit of determination manifested that augurs propitiously for ultimate success. Last week a woman's rights convention assembled in Boston, which was largely attended, and at which the question of negro suffrage was warmly advocated. Julia Ward Howe spoke at length on the subject, stating among other things the fact that for a long time she had said and written much against woman suffrage, but when the ballot had been given to the negro she thought it was time that women should enjoy that franchise also. Lucy Stone Blackwell gave an account of the attempt of the women to vote at Vineland, and the refusal of their votes. This irrepressible lady informed her audience that she had come to the determined conclusion that it would "never do to give it up so," and had accordingly entered suit against the judge of the election who refused her vote. Her declaration of intention to carry the matter to the Supreme Court of the United States, should the courts of New Jersey confirm the action of the election judges, elicited rounds of ap[plause.]

At this convention a memorial was unanimously adopted, asking that in all future amendments to the Constitution the rights of women be secured, and that in all future legislation for the District of Columbia and the Territories the rights of suffrage be given to women. Senator Wilson made a speech also, in which he expressed sentiments favorable to the object of the convention.

From these earnest movements it will be seen that this question is gradually assuming vast proportions, and the sterner sex may as well make up their minds, first as last, to accede to the demand.

Ben Butlerr's Position.

A special reporter of the New York Herald has recently had a conversation with Ben Butler, who has expectations of becoming the Radical leader of the next Congress. The late Presidential election, said the General, was a "thrown race," the leaders of the Democracy having intended it to go just as it did Grant winning the Presidency and Hoffman winning New York.—The newspaper defection in New York and Washington was part of the scheme, the closeness of the race in Pennsylvania and Indiana determining the leaders to demoralize the party by the proposed change of front. The new administration will be radical upon the reconstruction points, but conservative upon financial matters. As to the [A]labama claims, he thinks the people are willing to wait until the precedent of some English war to square accounts by a like chance on British commerce.

CONTESTED SEATS IN CONGRESS.—The cost of a seat in the British Parliament is something beyond the purse of a man of moderate income, but if the custom of contesting elections increases at the present rate in this country, we may be able to reckon seats in our national House of Representatives at a figure quite as high. To judge by the great number of such cases, not only in Congress, but for different offices in all parts of the country, fraud and corruption entirely overpowered justice and decency at the late election.—More than twenty seats in the next Congress will be contested, and many of the claimants have not the slightest legitimate prospect of success.

THE TORTUGAS PRISONERS.—The Boston Advertiser, speaking of the men now confined in the Dry Tortugas on the charge of complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, says: "Nobody ever conceived that Arnold was guilty of anything beyond the plot to abduct; there are grave doubts whether O'Laughlin, now dead, was implicated further than that, and the commission which tried them understood this fully or they would have been sentenced to the gallows, instead of for life at the Tortugas. Spangler, whose six years' term is now more than half expired, is undoubtedly an innocent man, knowing nothing of either plot; but everybody who ever examined the matter, except President Johnson, became convinced of this long ago."—The Alexandria Gazette adds to the above: "We believe Dr. Mudd to be entirely innocent. It is time that this outrage upon justice and humanity should cease."

A GOOD ONE.—A Galveston gentleman, lately stopping at the Nicholson House, Bastrop, was in a room recently occupied by the Agent of the Freedman's Bureau. One evening, Tom, a freedman, entered the room to make a fire, and after doing so sat down, crossed his legs and made himself at home, smoking and spitting in the fire place. The Galvestonian asked him what he meant by such familiarity: Tom looked up in evident surprise, and immediately arose, hat in hand, and in his politest manner, said: "Beg pardon, Massa! didn't know you was a gemman; thought you was de Freedman's Bureau!—News, Galveston, Texas.

SOME of the Michigan newspapers strongly urge the re-election of Senator Chandler, radical, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. Referring to this recommendation, the Philadelphia Telegraph, radical, remarks:

"We think Michigan can do much better. Chandler, at the best, is a demagogue, happening to be on the right side at present. But he is a man who is not qualified, either by intellect or habits, for the high position which he has now filled during a period of twelve years. In all the elements of statesmanship he is a mere pigmy by the side of his colleague, Senator Howard. Let the new Michigan Legislature look around the State before they give Chandler another six years' lease of the flesh-pots. They will have no difficulty in finding a better and more deserving man to represent their State in the National Senate."

NEWS IN BRIEF.

BELAIR, Nov 17.—Late on Sunday afternon last, a most violent outrage was committed by a negro man on a most estimable married lady, in Harford county, Md. The lady was so much abused, and so seriously injured, that up to the time of writing, she had been unable to give any detailed account of the brutal conduct of the negro. This is the fourth or fifth affair of this kind which has happened in this county within the past year, in which negroes have been the actors and white women the sufferers. In this instance, the lady was returning from church, and had left the buggy of her husband but a few minutes before the outrageous assault was made upon her.

On Tuesday, the 3d instant, a most horrible crime was committed near Swainsboro,' Emanuel county, by a negro named Pierce Bolding upon the person of Miss Wiggins, a young lady of fifteen years, and the daughter of a respected citizen of that county. It appears that she was on her way to school in the village, when the negro rushed from the roadside, knocked her senseless, and accomplished his purpose. She was found lying insensible by a passer-by and carried home, and on recovering related what had occurred. The officers of the law and others started in pursuit of the scoundrel, and overhauled him near Summerville, in the same county, from whence he was carried to jail, when he confessed having committed the deed. The same night a body of armed men proceeded to the jail, took him out and hung him. Previous to his execution he stated that he and several other negroes, had formed a plan on that day to violate the persons of several young ladies who attended school in the village, but the others overslept themselves and he started out alone, and Miss Wiggins was the first one he met. —Savannah News.

Fort Wallace, Kansas, Nov. 20.—An expedition, composed of two companies of the first cavalry and one of the thirty-eigth infantry, with artillery, left this post this P. M., under Lieut. Col. T. H. Carpenter, to join a force under Generals Carr and Custer, who have marched, or are about to march, from Forts Dodge and Lynn for the Canadian river, under the personal supervision of Gen. Sheridan, against the main body of Southern Indians, who are supposed to be camped in that vicinity. Carpenter's command is to scout in the country near Pawnee Fork and Walnut creek.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—A Salt Lake special says that hanging of roughs at Bear River City, on the 11th, previously reported, created great excitement, and this morning a mob of 200 men burned the Frontier Index office and jail. The citizens armed themselves and fired on the mob. It is reported that twenty of the mob are dead and thirty-five wounded, two fatally, [illegible] concealed in the mountains. They sent in for a physician to attend their wounded, and sent word back by the doctor ordering women and children to leave, as they intended marching on the town four hundred strong, and would burn it. The mayor has telegraphed to Fort Bridges for troops. They are expected to-morrow.

Philadelphia, November 22.—Mary E. Hill, a widow lady, residing at the northeast corner of Tenth and Pine streets, was killed to-night. Her son-in-law, George S. Twitchell, Jr., was arrested, charged with the act. Her body was thrown from a second-story window. The deed was committed with a heavy iron poker, and no cause is assigned for the act.

Richmond, November 20.—Chief Justice Chase will arrive next Monday to preside at the fall term of the United States Circuit Court. Jefferson Davis, it is understood, will appear by counsel, as at present arranged, unless the government should make a different requirement.

A heavy shock of earthquake was felt in Millerton, Fresno county, California, November 5th. The wall of the court-house was badly cracked, and the waters of the San Joaquin river disturbed. Slight shocks were also experienced at Austin, Nevada, November 17.

Richmond, Va., is blessed with a superabundance of courts at present, as may be judged by the following list of those now in session: U. S. Circuit Court, U. S. District Court, Court of Appeals, Hustings Court and Circuit Court of Richmond.

PERIODICALS.

"YOUNG AMERICA."—This favorite juvenile periodical enters upon its third year greatly enlarged and improved. It is decidedly the most varied, and, in many respects, the best of all the juveniles, and well repays the investment of the small sum required for its possession. A diagram containing a full-sized pattern for cutting out the body of a Christmas doll is one of the attractions of the present number, which is, otherwise, full of good things. Subscribe for your boys and girls. $1.50 per annum, with a premium. Publication Office, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

THE NURSERY.—The December number of this "magazine for youngest readers" has been received. It is more interesting than ever. The publishers announce in the Prospectus of the Nursery for 1869, that it will be far before anything that has yet appeared. Now is a good time to subscribe for this excellent little monthly. Terms, $1.50 a year in advance; 3 copies, $4; 5 copies, $6. Address John L. Shorey, 13 Washington st., Boston, Mass.

THE GALAXY.—This popular monthly for December is on our table. The contents are of the choicest literature and full of interest to the general reader. The leading papers in this number are, Cipher, a novel; Poe and Hawthorne; The Confederate Congress; A chapter in the history of the late war, &c. Published by Sheldon & Co., 500 Broadway, N. Y.

A GREAT NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.—As will be observed by reference to prospectus, Moore's Rural New-Yorker is to be nearly doubled in size and otherwise materially improved.—The Rural is already the most popular national weekly of its class, but the proposed change must largely extend its circulation and influence.

Butler Selling "Negroes" in Lowell.

Butler, the Beast, is about the only man living against whom we would take the testimony of the "poltroon," General Kilpatrick. For this reason we give what the latter said of the former in a speech in Massachusetts:

"On the afternoon of the departure of Mr. Butler in the steamer Spaulding, for Charleston, S. C., when the Democratic Convention was to be held, he dined with several gentlemen at a public hall in Boston, and to one of the gentlemen (whose name I will give when Butler asks me for it or denies this charge) he said: "Sir, I am going to Charleston to influence the Democratic party, to put in their platform the Dred Scott decision, and I propose to fight it out on that principle until I can buy and sell a negro in the streets of Lowell as I can buy and sell a pound of candles, for by G—d, sir, it is my constitutional right."—Richmond Whig.

THE LUTHERAN COUNCIL.—On Tuesday, during the session of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, at Pittsburg, the chairman of the committee which was appointed to prepare a [illegible] on the four subjects of Secret Societies, Mixed Communion, Interchange of Pulpits and Chiliasm, or the theory of an intermediate reign of Christ between the two resurrections, presented the views of the majority on the sense of the Council on these questions. They were briefly as follows:

"We warn all good and honest men against all associations which ignore our Lord Jesus Christ, or omit His name in their services. We adopt discriminate in preference to indiscriminate communion. We admit no one into our pulpits whom we do not know to teach the pure word of God. We reject Chiliasm as the confessions of the Church—the Augsburg especially—reject it."

The entire forenoon was occupied in the discussion of the above report, which was at length unanimously adopted.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—The bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church are now holding their annual meeting in New York. The statistical returns for the present year (1868) show a considerable advance. The membership of the Baltimore conference is 17,635: increase this year, 1,667. East Baltimore, 42,312: increase 146. Virginia and North Carolina, 2 756; increase 2,985. West Virginia, 27,959; increase, 1,176. Washington, 21,036; increase, 3,573. The increase this year in sixty seven Conferences 95,178. Total membership, inclusive of bisops and traveling preachers, 1,242,259. There are 8,481 traveling preachers; local preachers 9,898. Total, 19,379. The net increase of the number of traveling preachers 477, and of local 429, making a total net increase over the number in 1867 of 906. The Sunday School Department will also show a a large gain. The receipts of the Missionary Society from Nov. 1, 1867, and ending October 31, 1868, are $614,137 16.

We would call especial attention to the fine American Organ, manufactured by S. D. & H. W. Smith, Boston, Mass., containing two banks of keys and fourteen stops, which was used at the musical convention, to assist in supporting the chorus. At the concerts, the deep sub bass notes were plainly manifest above the 300 voices in the grand Hallelujah chorus, while in the accompaniment of the solo, "He was despised." The touching effects of the tremolo, with the soft stops, was strikingly exhibited.—Burlington Sentinael.

THE VOTE OF NEW YORK.—With official returns from all the counties but two the total vote of New York State foots up 848,278 of which 419,556 are for Grant, and 425,722 for Seymour—Seymour's majority 9,166. Hoffman's majority for Governor is 27,322. The official vote of New York city is returned as follows: Seymour 108,316; Grant 47,702; Hoffman 412,522; Griswold 43,372.

A FICKLE QUEEN.—The late Queen of Spain, Isabella, II., is said by a Paris editor who has counted them up, to have had five hundred and nineteen cabinet ministers during her reign of thirty five years; several times as many as all the Presidents of United States together have had, from 1788 until now.

Philadelphia has taken steps to import a thousand English sparrows, which will be let loose in the public squares and parks next spring.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

SALE OF OIL STOCK.—The Board of Directors of the Hoover and Marshall Oil Company passed the following preamble and resolution, on the 4th day of November, A. D., 1868, viz:

WHEREAS, An assessment of four cents per share was made by a resolution of the board of Directors, on the 4th day of October, 1865, and a number of Stockholders failed to pay said assessment, and whereas the Secretary by a resolution passed the 14th of March, 1866, was directed to give notice to said delinquent Stockholders, that if their assessments were not paid on or before the first day of April, 1866, their Stock would be sold as provided for in the act of assembly under which the company was incorporated, which notice was given.

Therefore; Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to advertise the Stock of the said delinquent Stockholders for sale, at the Court House, in Bedford borough, on the 10th day of December, A. D., 1868, according to the provision of the act of assembly.

The undersigned, Treasurer of said Company, will therefore, in accordance of the above resolution, offer for sale, at public auction, at the Court House, in Bedford, on the 10th day of December, A. D. 1868, at 2 o'clock, P. M., all the Stock of delinquent Stockholders, in said Hoover and Marshall Oil Company. H. NICODEMUS.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

OUR NEW GREAT

STANDARD WORK,

CHAMBERS'

INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE,

The largest, best and cheapest subscription book ever published, and endorsed by all Literary People in Europe and America.

As well to supply a much needed want in our own country by diffusing correct information in a form best adapted to our people as to gratify repeated solicitations from friends to issue an American edition of this valuable work, the Publishers have undertaken the enterprise. The vast amount of illustrated trash that has flooded the country for some years past demands a book of this character, for the benefit of those who wish to read for instruction and entertainment, instead of cheap pictures and sensational newspaper clippings bound up in form of and sold for books.

This great work is of itself a complete and select library for every family. Containing over 3,000 closely printed pages, on all subjects of popular interest, from the best authors, and especially adapted to the wants of the people. The daily inquiries received as to date of issue give assurances of an extraordinary sale. By applying at once, agents will secure a choice of territory for a book that will sell to everybody, regardless of sect, party, or section. Send for circulars, and see our terms and a full description of this mammoth work.

WOULD'NT REJOICE.—The grand jollification that was to come off in this place last week, because of Grant's election, was the most complete failure we have ever witnessed. The boys who watched all night to see the heavens illuminated by the meteors the night after the phenomena really did take place, were equally gratified with those of our citizens who expected to see our streets dazzle with the torches of the admirers of the successful "no policy" candidate. The torches were not brought forth for the people did not come out to carry them. The houses were not illuminated for gold had gone up, and the sperm candle market was unsteady. The meeting was slim for the people remained at home conjuring what to do with the elephant they had won at the late raffle. Why don't the people rejoice? Let us see. The farmer cannot make merry over the heavy decline in wheat and everything he produces; the laboring man does not feel glad in the prospect of a reduction in the price of labor, and the moneyed man trembles at the unsettled condition of the country and the unmistakable symptoms of a near approaching financial crash. Could you expect the people to rejoice, to "eat, drink and be merry," with such a prospect before them? It is hardly to be expected. They see the predicament they have voted themselves into and would gladly reverse it if they could. They see heavy breakers ahead, and when the old ship is driven among them, and our radical friends raise the cry of distress, then, "Let us have peace!"

THE WEATHER.—For several days we have had winter with all its stern reality. We could exclaim in the language of the song, "It snows! it snows! from out the sky, The little feathered flakes do fly," as these sure premonitory symtoms of the near approach of winter were fantastically dancing through the air. After an absence of a few days old Sol again made his appearance and soon changed the sheet of snow with which the earth had been covered, into water which in turn created mud, making pedestrianism anything but pleasant. Out door life had no charms, and warm stoves were in great demand, and when found, extensively patronized. An exchange discourses thus on the weather:—

Winter has come. A leaden sky frowns upon humanity; the frost-king kisses us with his stinging lips, and the air is redolent of dancing snow-flakes. Balmy Indian summer gave us a last visit on Thursday, arousing choice memories, and draping material existence in a halo of poetic impulses. Yesterday was one to arouse the keenest appreciation of the robust northern element of our population, and carry gloom and discomfort to those from a southern clime. The charms of nature are for the season wrapped in their winding sheet; the sail on the lake arouse sympathy, instead of evoking admiration, and the prairie stands forth the embodiment of desolation.

The charms of the winter season, in our northern latitudes, will speedily manifest themselves. Our out-door enjoyments are doubly productive of health and happiness; families long separated gather inside the old homestead, and their members inspire each other with new life, while the cold months cover the yearly era of marrying and giving in marriage. Thus do all the seasons give us their complement of joy with their chalice of gloom; thus does a merciful Providence preserve the equilibrium between feeble humanity and unyielding nature.

DISPLAY OF METEORS.—Seemingly in compensation for the disappointment of November two years ago, when all America sat up all night, and in many cases two or three nights, in hope of seeing a display of meteors, we were favored on the night of the 15th and morning of the 14th inst., with a shower of stars far exceeding the expectations of the astronomers. The 13th of every November is distinguished by a greater number of these visitors than any other day in the year, but the seasons of most numerous meteors seem to return at intervals of about 33 years. Counting from 1833, celebrated for its meteoric shower, it was predicted that a similar one ought to return in 1866, which it did, but in the day-time; it was seen however, in Europe, where of course the sun had set some hours earlier than here. During the display week before last, two observers counted 1300 between 11 and 3.30 and with more care might have doubled the number. What the number might have been through good telescopes with several observers it is impossible to say. Some of the meteors were very beautiful, being of different colors and leaving long trains of light behind them. One left a lurid cloud hanging in the sky for over two hours. With very few exceptions, the meteors came from one point in the heavens, the Sickle in the constellation Leo. The length of their paths as visible here varied very much. Many would appear like stars, move about half a degree and be seen no more, while a few would start from Leo just over the top of the Cove Mountain, and sweeping across the heavens with a swift but even motion, sink behind Will's Mountain leaving a train to mark their path to those who were not fortunate enough to see the meteors themselves.

BURNS.—An exchange says "that nothing on the face of the earth equals cool water as a remedy for Burns." The burned portion should be soaked several hours in water. Persons whose hands have been severely burned have experienced such a relief by placing them in a basin of water at the bedside that they could sleep comfortable all the night, and wake to find themselves almost as well as ever. The remedy is very simple and easily tried.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following cases were disposed of in the Quarter Sessions last week:

Com. vs. Mary Russell. Assault and Battery on oath of Thomas Bagley. Guilty. Fined $5.00 and costs.

Com. vs John D. Boyer. Perjury on oath of Samuel Walter. Not Guilty, but pay the costs of prosecution.

Com. vs. Lucas Saupp. Assault and Battery on oath of Thornton Tilghman, (col.) Not a true bill and prosecutor to pay costs.

Com. vs Elizabeth Love, (col.) Assault and Battery on oath of David Conder, (col.) Not guilty and each to pay half the costs.

Com. vs Thornton Tilghman, (col. Assault, &c., on oath of Lucas Saupp. Not a true bill and prosecutor to pay costs.

Com. vs Henry Bare. Fraudulent voting on oath of Abraham Dennison. Guilty, and fined $50 and three months in county jail.

Com. vs Betsey Love, John Hurley, Nimrod Wohns, Winnie Ann Plowden and Dawson Love, (all col'd.) Assault and Battery on oath of Rose Strothers. Defendants Not Guilty but pay all costs.

Com. vs Albert Burket. Assault &c., on oath of Ellen May. Guilty, and fined $5 and costs.

Com. vs Willis Strothers and David Conder, (col'd.) Assault and Battery on oath of Betsey Love, (col'd.) Not Guilty and costs divided between the Prosecutor and the Defendants.

Com. vs Josiah Corl. For. and Bas. on oath of Maria Mock. Guilty. The usual fine.

In the Common Pleas the following cases were disposed of:

A. B. Bunn, Esq., Ex'r of the last will, &c., of Ann Catharine Dannaker, dec'd, vs Christian A. Dannaker. Defendant confessed judgment to Plaintiff for $527.25.

Joshua J. Shoemaker and Herbert Shoemaker, Executors of P. J. Shoemaker, dec'd, vs Jonathan Bowser. Jury find for Plaintiffs for $82.07.

John Cessna vs Jonathan Bowser. Jury find for Plaintiff for $491.50.

Joseph McCormick vs Gates & Dasher. Jury find for Plaintiff for $92.28.

Michael Ritchey vs Homer Neice. Jury find for Plaintiff for 112.63.

Mary Ann Hammond vs William Koontz. Jury find for Plaintiff six cents damages and six cents costs.

Jacob Lingenfelter et al vs George W. Gump. Plaintiffs take non suit.

THE FASHIONS.—It is truly wonderful to note the changes that the fashions take. To-day they run into one extreme, to-morrow into another.—Gentlemen take the cast off styles of the ladies, while the ladies assume those of the gentlemen. Men wear caps, cloaks, capes, shawls and other apparel which formerly were only worn by women, and the latter in turn wear hats, boots, coats and even, in the case of a hen-pecked husband, wear the very "breeches" that belong to the "lord of the household." In the race for new innovations in style and fashion the fair sex bid fair to far outstrip us, and it seems as if we had to assume the offensive if we wish to retain any of our rights in the matter of wearing apparel.

A young man, laboring over the gradual encroachments of woman-kind on masculine territory in the matter of dress, breaks into song as follows:

"They took our coats, at first we hardly missed them;
And then they aped our dickeys and cravats;
They stole our sacks—we only laughed and kiss'd them;
Emboldened then they stole our very hats,
Until, by slow and sure degrees, the witches
Have taken all—our coats, hats, boots and breeches.

Happily, the "Grecian bend" has come to our relief.

TO YOUNG MEN.—Don't rely upon your friends. Don't rely upon the name of your ancestors. Thousands have spent the prime of life in a vain dependence upon those whom they called their friends, and thousands have starved because they had a rich father. Rely upon a good name which is made by your own exertions, and know that better than the best friend you can have is unquestionable determination, united with decision of character.

STARTLING.—Both continents of this planet are to be submerged, according to the prophecies of a German philosopher, in about 5,000,000 years. Our subscribers need not be deterred from renewing their subscriptions in view of the verification of this prophecy, provided they do not pay for a longer term than these figures indicate. It would be well to watch this modern Jeremiah, and if at the end of this period his prophecies prove false send us word and we will expose him—if we happen to be running the GAZETTE.

WHY HE DIDN'T.—"Why don't you trade with me?" said a close-fisted tradesman to a friend, the other day. The reply was very characteristic: "You have never asked me, sir. I have looked all through the GAZETTE for an invitation in the shape of an advertisement and found none. I never go where I am not invited."

FESTIVAL.—The Little Girls' Aid Society of the Episcopal Church will hold a festival for the benefit of said church, on Thanksgiving evening, (Thursday) in the Grand Jury room. The public are respectfully invited to attend and contribute to the cause in which these young ladies are engaged.

STILL IMPROVING.—"Mine Host" of the Bedford Hotel is still improving his well known public house. The long porch in front has been torn down to make way for an iron verandah.—Our neighbor deserves great credit for his spirit of improvement.

A western editor thinks if the proper way of spelling tho is "though," and bo "beaux," the proper way of spelling potatoes must be "poughteighteaux." The new way of spelling softly is "psoughtheigh."

E. F. KERR, Esq., offers a lot of valuable real estate for sale. See his advertisement in another column.

THE PITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE is closing a prosperous Fall Term. Young ladies, representing nearly one-third of the States in the Union, are present, and the boarding department is so full that there are but four vacancies. The buildings are thoroughly furnished and fitted up in good style. Every department is supplied with able and accomplished teachers, amounting in all to upwards of twenty. In all the facilties for obtaining a thorough, solid and ornamental education, the college has no rival in the State, and but few in the Union. The Winter Term commences December 6. We must heartily commend the Collage to all who have daughters to educate, and who desire for them thorough culture, combined with careful oversight and the influences of a Christian home. Send to the President, Rev. I. C. Pershing, Pittsburgh, Pa., for a catalogue.

"ONE OF THE BOYS."—A youngster came home after having a glorious time in the puddles, his face all aglow, and his rubber boots full of water.—The punishment of staying in the house for the remainder of the day did not seem very hard at first; but as his little heart warmed up with the recollection of the triumphs of the morning when he had waded deeper than any of his playmates dared to, he could bear the restraint no longer, and went to his mother, saying, "Please, mother, whip me, and let me go out again."

REGISTERED LETTERS.—Under the new system, which went into effect June 1st, registered letters are a very safe means of sending small sums of money where post-office money orders cannot easily be obtained.—The registry fee, as well as postage, must be paid in stamps at the office where the letter is mailed, or it will be liable to be sent to the dead letter office. Buy and affix the stamps, both for the postage and registry, put in the money and seal the letter in the presence of the postmaster.

CALISAYA BARK.—It is said that Messrs Drake & Co., (proprietors of the Plantation Bitters) are the largest importers of Calisaya Bark in this country, and that, with the exception of an occasional sale, all they import is used in the compounding of their celebrated Plantation Bitters,—to which they undoubtedly are indebted for their wonderful health-restoring properties. As a Tonic and Appetizer they are not surpassed and we cheerfully recommend them. All first-class Druggists keep them for sale.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

STOVES! STOVES!!——Everybody should call at the mammoth Stove establishment of B. M. Blymyer & Co., and see the large assortment of all kinds of Stoves, heaters, &c., there on exhibition and for sale. And we particularly call attention to the celebrated "Revolving Light" perpetual-burner for parlor, office or store; also to Spear's celebrated Cook Stove for coal or wood. Call and examine these Stoves before purchasing any others.

MANY persons coming to town, to attend court next week, will want school books; remember that the Inquirer Book Store is the best place in the county to get them. It is also supplied with a fine assortment of elegant books suitable for Christmas presents, &c. Don't forget to call and examine them.

QUALITY AND STYLE.—For the true test of cheapness, in getting your boots and shoes for the coming winter, you should call at "the Regulator's," and get a pair of his excellent made boots or shoes, guaranteed to give satisfaction.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE ON THANKSGIVING DAY.—There will be a Service at the Court House, on Thanksgiving morning to commence at half past ten o'clock.

A GOOD INVESTMENT—For your daughters is in a good education. Intelligence pays. Hollidaysburg claims to have the best building for a Female Seminary in Pennsylvania.

Sewing Machines.

$25! $25!

THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE

SEWING MACHINE

Is retailed at a price within the reach of all. This Machine uses a straight needle, makes the LOCK STITCH (alike on both sides), has a self-adjusting tension, and can do every variety of sewing. It will hem, fell, bind, cord, braid, seam, built, tuck, ruffle, and gather; and will work equally well on silk, linen, woolen, or cotton goods, with silk, linen, or cotton thread.

AMERICAN SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE

—IS—

Warranted for Five Years!

Our Agents will be supplied with duplicate parts of the Machine, in case of accident. It makes precisely the same stitch made by the Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, Howe, and Florence Machines. It has the Under-feed, like the best of high-priced Machines, and is the only low-priced Shuttle Machine in the market that has this feed. We are enabled to sell a first-class SHUTTLE MACHINE at a very low price, on account of its Simplicity, and consequent low cost of Manufacturing, in comparison with Complicated Machines.

AGENTS.

We wish to arrange with Agents, male or female, to represent the American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in each State, County, and Town in the United States and Ontario. Extra inducements to Experienced Agents. For full particulars, as to Salary or Commission, address

THE GREAT

AMERICAN COMBINATION

Button Hole Overseaming

AND

SEWING MACHINE.

Its Wonderful Popularity Conclusive Proof of its Great Merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been Ten Fold during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

This grand and surprising success is unprecedented in the history of sewing-machines, and we feel fully warranted in claiming that

IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING ABSOLUTELY THE BEST

FAMILY MACHINE

IN THE WORLD

And Intrinsically the Cheapest.

It is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement,) making both the Shuttle or Lock-stitch, and the Overseaming and Button-hole stitch, with equal facility and perfection. It executes in the very best manner every variety of sewing, such as Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Stitching, Braiding and Quilting, Gathering and sewing on, (done at the same time,) and in addition, Oversewing, Embroiders on the edge, and makes beautiful Button and Eyelet-holes in all fabrics.

Every Machine is warranted by the Company, or its Agents, to give entire satisfaction.

Circulars, with full particulars and samples of work done on this Machine, can be had on application at the Salesrooms of

THE AMERICAN
BUTTON HOLE OVERSEAMING AND
SEWING MACHINE CO.,

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either Silk, Twist, Linen or Cotton Thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.
